'Grassroots' fights bond

Resident voices tax woes in opposition to paving

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

The push for two bond issues which supporters claim will build a "city of pride" has opposition.

An informal group which calls itself "Grassroots" has voiced its opposition to a $14-million proposal to build a recreation center and pave all city streets because "people feel taxes are high enough, and in these hard times, we can't ask for more," according to Richard Campbell, group spokesman.

"This is a spontaneously-formed group which got together to oppose these very expensive propositions which are being put before the voters without much notice," Campbell said. "We don't go along with the idea behind everyone paying for paving and the way that the recreation bond millage was requested."

Campbell, who lives in one of Romulus' first fully-paved subdivisions on Huron River Drive near Wabash Road, said he does not believe he should be asked to pay for paving on his street and to pay for the paving of dirt roads in the community.

"When you consider that the newer homes in the city are assessed higher than a majority of the older homes in Romulus on dirt roads, you see that the newer homes on paved streets will be paying more for paving of the dirt roads than the homeowners who benefit by that paving," Campbell said. "I'd rather see an idea such as the one in East Detroit, where homeowners receiving paving in front of their homes pay for that benefit."

Campbell added that he does not oppose a recreation center being built in the city "but I do oppose asking for $5 million from the people with so little notice."

"It's only been one month since The Romulus Roman first reported the story of the bond issue, and the taxpayers will be given another month, until Aug. 12, to think about the issue before voting," he said. "There is not even a provision for a public hearing on the matter."

Campbell said that last weekend's public meeting at the Romulus Progressive Club "was nothing but a beer bash, and wasn't suited for discussing the ramifications of the issue."

The Grassroots group has publicized its campaign by distributing more than 1,000 leaflets to homes in the Romulus area. Campbell said that about 10 people took part in the distributions and said he probably could get between 25 and 35 people to a meeting to discuss the group's concern.

"But we're trying to reach more people all the time," he said. "I think it's important that the other side of this issue is heard."

Mayor Terry L. Troutt, who proposed the bond issue, which will be decided on the Aug. 12 ballot, said he and his administrative team will meet with "any group of more than eight individuals at any time to discuss the matter."

Regarding the Grassroots campaign, he said: "I don't disagree with their right to be heard — that's allowed under a democracy — but I hope the discussion centers around the merits of the proposal and its cost, and doesn't get into politics."

Campbell said that the group includes no candidate for public office and added that his former political action consisted of being elected president of his school's PTA for two terms and serving on the Romulus Board of Education Compensatory Education Advisory Council.

"I'm not used to these sort of things, but I feel like standing up and being heard on the issue, and I think there are others who share the same feelings," Campbell said. "Taxes are high enough now without asking for more."

Campbell said he has received an invitation to meet with Troutt at 8 p.m. July 24 at City Hall.

"I'd like to get as many people there as possible, though," he said.

500 citizens attend bond issue rally

The citizens of Romulus heard a request to "build a city of pride" at a campaign rally for a favorable vote on two proposed bond issues costing $14.1 million to finance a city recreation center and paving of virtually every unpaved road in the city.

More than 500 citizens, mostly young homeowners, turned out for a rally at the Romulus Progressive Club Hall Saturday designed to distribute information on a proposed $5 million recreation center bond issue and a $9.1 million paving bond issue.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt, who made the proposals for the Aug. 12 special election ballot, told the homeowners: "We haven't had anything for a long time to be proud about in Romulus."

"We ought to build a city everyone can be proud of."

"What we now have in Romulus has been given to us by the city's old-timers. Now it's the younger peoples' turn to do something for their city to show the same faith and pride in Romulus and the same spirit in Romulus as the long-time residents."

The 500 persons attending the rally, which featured entertainment and free beer, paid $1 per person admission.

Proceeds from the rally will go to finance the campaign for a yes vote on the bond issues.

Troutt informed the residents attending the rally that the two proposals will cost them "less than what you spend on one night on the town."

"The average home in Romulus — assessed at around $6,000 — would see an increase in taxes of around $24 if this bond issue is approved," Troutt said. "And that isn't considering the reduction in taxes which will result from the expansion of the General Motors complex."

Campaign material distributed at the rally indicated that General Motors and other industries in Romulus would be paying 83 percent of the tab for the improvements if approved by the voters.

The bonding plan

Romulus citizens were treated to a special presentation in an informal atmosphere on the city's two proposed bond issues at a rally at the Romulus Progressive Club Saturday. Here Mayor Terry L. Troutt shows 13-year-old Cindy Shipp of 15721 Harrison St., and Mrs. Clara Hedden of 15033 Knollway Ave., some of the items on the proposed $5 million recreation center which may benefit their age groups. In addition to the recreation center, the city will be asking, on an Aug. 12 special election ballot, for permission to spend $9.1 million on road improvements through the sale of $14.1 million in bonds for both projects.

The mayor compared the campaign to that in the mid-1950s which resulted in the approval of bonds for a water and sewer system.

Troutt added that he requested the Aug. 12 election, instead of a balloting on the Sept. 9 primary date "to keep the questions from becoming a political issue."

"I won't debate the merits with the politicians, because it isn't that sort of an issue," he said.

Stewart to run in mayor race

A third candidate has announced his intention to run for the top administrative post in Romulus.

James C. Stewart, a councilman since the city was incorporated in 1971, has announced he will seek the mayoral post nomination in September.

"I have my petitions signed and ready to hand in," Stewart said. "But I want to make my formal announcement now, before handing them in next week."

In announcing his candidacy, Stewart joins incumbent Mayor Terry L. Troutt and challenger Clayton W. Meldrum in a race for two nominations to a spot on the November general election mayoral battle.

The two finalists will be chosen in a primary election Sept. 9.

Stewart boasts a long term of public service in the community, dating back to 1965, when he was elected to a 2-year term on the Romulus Township Highway Commission. After serving that term he was elected to the Romulus Township Board of Trustees, serving from 1967 until 1971, when he was elected as city councilman.

Stewart is proposing a basic outline of his goals at this time, claiming he will make more specific proposals as the campaign progresses.

His 3-point outline includes a promise to live within a city budget "citizens of Romulus can afford", utilizing the Detroit Metropolitan Airport taxing potential to the best interests of the citizens and devoting more time to planning and zoning of undeveloped Romulus property.

"I run for office because everyone in the city knows I'm an independent thinker, an outspoken member of the City Council, and a major supporter of those programs most beneficial to Romulus and its citizens," Stewart said. The candidate has been married for 29 years to his wife, Irene, and is the father of two daughters, Joyce, 27, and Linda, 19.

He has lived in the community since 1955 and was a businessman in Romulus from 1969.

He is owner of the Romulus Welding Company on Harrison Street.

Stewart said he intends to run with eight other candidates, seeking persons for a slate which will cover every office but the clerk's post in the city.

Committee screened post candidates

A selection committee appointed by the Romulus Board of Education to screen candidates for the superintendency of the Romulus Community School District has narrowed the field of 65 applicants to 13.

The names of the 13 finalists were served on the Board of Education at a July 8 session with the 6-member selection panel headed by Richard Nisbet, director of placement for Eastern Michigan University.

Included among the 13 finalists is James M. Garfield, acting superintendent and assistant superintendent for personnel in the district. He is the only Romulus employee who has applied for the job.

Garfield has been filling the post since Robert L. McConnelly vacated it in May after 16 years of service.

The educational background of the 13 finalists, researched by the panel, also has been turned over to the Board of Education, which will begin 2-hour oral interviews with the candidates on two successive Saturdays to be scheduled by Gerald Budd, newly elected president of the Romulus Board of Education.

The deadline for finding a new superintendent is Aug. 15, according to a reported agreement of school board members.

In addition to the applicants seeking consideration by the selection committee, another 12 educators had made inquiries about the job but did not submit any educational experience background.

Basic requirements for the superintendent's post, as detailed in a brochure sent to candidates by the Romulus Board of Education, include management experience in education, expertise in teaching and operating a building as a principal, a master's degree in school administration and five years of work in school administration.

approval of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees. The request for the rezoning of 42 acres of land, located in the northeast section of Belleville and Tyler roads to allow 88 additional home sites and for the construction of a shopping center along the Belleville Road frontage of the land parcel, was filed by George Rohrer, owner of Belleville Manors. The rezoning required a change from the parcel's present zoning of residential to mobile home and general commercial. The township trustees' approval on the commercial aspects of the rezoning was unanimous, but the zoning change to mobile home classification was by a 4-3 vote.

Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer, Township Clerk Patricia Cullin and Trustee Darwin Kureth voted against the mobile home zoning. The rezoning request previously had been approved by the township Planning Commission by a 5-2 vote and on June 18 the Wayne County Planning Commission had recommended approval with the additional suggestion that adequate screening and buffers be added. Currently Belleville Manors has 269 homes, all of which are occupied, according to the owners. The proposed expansion would raise the mobile home lots to 357. Mrs. Cullin said the township should maintain balance in the growth of the township by zoning and added that the township had more mobile home spaces per capita than most surrounding communities. According to figures presented by Mrs. Cullin, 65 of the 777 mobile home sites are vacant and the percentage of mobile homes in the township already is greater than the majority of adjacent communities. Her figures also disclosed that the township currently has 103 mobile home sites per 1,000 persons as compared with 29 per 1,000 persons in Ypsilanti Township and 72 per 1,000 in Canton Township. Only Sumpter Township was higher with 172 units per 1,000 persons, she added. Trustees Fred Domen, Jerry Maton and Thomas Kelly, who voted for the rezoning commented on the high quality of the Belleville Manors and its well-run operation plus the low occupancy rate for apartments in the township.

Council in Belleville rejects plea for sand

A request submitted by the K&K Construction Co. of Belleville for city approval to excavate sand from a 17-acre land parcel located within the city limits has been rejected by the Belleville City Council. The firm which is engaged in underground construction work sought to excavate sand from the industrially zoned land site located in the vicinity of Sumpter and Savage roads, near the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. The council turned down the firm's request because the present city zoning ordinance prohibits such activity in the area, according to Mayor Ellis Amerman. In other matters, the council approved the purchase of the city's first wood chipper. At last week's council session only one bid proposal on the purchase of the new equipment was received and accepted. The only bid, received was in the amount of $6,100. It was submitted by R.G. Moeller Co. of Wixom.

The council also ordered the purchase of a safety device that will be attached to the wood chipper at a cost of $323. Delivery of the new tree, brush and wood cutting equipment is expected in 30 to 60 days. The new equipment will save the city money by eliminating frequent trips to the land fill site located in Sumpter Township and reducing the number of personnel currently used in ridding the community of brush, Amerman said.

Sumpter youth dies after near drowning

A 2-year-old Sumpter Township boy rescued from the family's back yard swimming pool died in Wayne County General Hospital of subsequent complications from the near-drowning incident. Jason John Ashford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ashford of 20551 Sumpter Road, was found by his father face down in the above ground pool around 9:15 p.m. July 3. The boy apparently had climbed the pool ladder and fell in, according to a Sumpter Township Police Department report. The father immediately removed the boy from the pool and carried him into the house where Sumpter Township fire and police departments were called. Both members of the fire and police squads summoned to the family home began administering mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to the boy who appeared to be lifeless. Upon arrival at the hospital, the boy had responded to the resuscitation efforts, according to Sumpter Police Sgt. Clinton Brown. The police officers assisting in the rescue efforts were Ptl. Dennis Mickens and Edward Brandon and Deputy Fire Chief Joseph Mitchell. The boy died Thursday.

Hearing to discuss lots

BELLEVILLE — A public hearing to determine the necessity of establishing a special assessment district to finance the operation and maintenance of city parking lots in the central business district has been scheduled for Aug. 4 by the Belleville City Council. The City Council is hoping to access downtown merchants annual costs of maintaining the municipal parking lots which currently are being financed by city tax funds but are used by business establishments.

City, commission to pay for drain study

Romulus and the Wayne County Road Commission will "go it alone" on a study to improve drainage in the city.

The Romulus City Council soon will authorize the city's administration to sign an agreement to pay $45,000 of a $65,000 study cost to determine whether the city and Detroit Metropolitan Airport — operated by the Road Commission — are able to drain storm water through a drain intercept proposed to be constructed to the Huron River in Huron Township.

"The decision was made after Huron Township delayed too long in making its decision whether to join in the project," Mayor Terry L. Troutt said. "Romulus can't wait for the Wayne County drain commissioner to access its residents before deciding to go ahead with a study, and the possible construction of a new drainage plan."

Troutt added that the drain commissioner "was moving ahead fast" on a plan to clean major storm drains which carry Romulus' storm run-off and that of other communities, to the Detroit River and Lake Erie.

Troutt has said in the past that the community's assessment in the clean-up — which will be charged against every community whose drainage enters the major storm outlets — would come to more than the estimated cost of the new storm drain construction.

"I don't understand the delay in Huron, since it faces a huge assessment on the Girard Drain unless it goes along with the intercept plan," Troutt said. "But there are political difficulties."

The Romulus Roman reported two weeks ago that the Huron Township Board has demanded the resignation of township supervisor George W. Moore for not fulfilling the duties of his office. During Moore's alleged absence from the Township Hall, the township board has taken little action on major issues.

Huron was to be charged $10,000 of the $65,000 project cost, but Romulus has agreed to pick up the tab. The money will have to be appropriated only if the city and Road Commission don't begin construction on the project within three years after the completion of the study.

The Road Commission is putting up the initial funds for the study.

Plans now will be to design a system to handle the 36-square-mile area which makes up Romulus and includes the airport. Capacity in the plan will be geared to the area, and won't consider the potential of adding Huron to the system.

"If the township decides later to join in, it'll have to finance the construction of the added drain size needed by itself, since Romulus and the Road Commission will have taken care of themselves in the original plan," Troutt said. "That's the danger of the township's delay, but if the city doesn't act soon, it will be caught in rising costs, too.

Romulus teacher gets recognition and honored title

An elementary school teacher and member of the Romulus Community School District teaching staff has been selected as an "Outstanding Elementary Teacher of America for 1975."

She is Rose Marie Raspberry, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Raspberry of 36254 Park Place, Romulus.

The announcement of Miss Raspberry's selection was made by James Bogel, director of the Outstanding Teachers of America, Washington, D.C.

The coveted honor was presented "in recognition of Miss Raspberry's contributions to the advancement of elementary education and service to the community."

Miss Raspberry, who was nominated for the honor by Romulus Elementary School Principal Richard Goode, is a 1969 graduate of Western Michigan University where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree. She has been teaching at the Romulus Elementary School for the last five years.

In June of this year, Miss Raspberry was notified by Eastern Michigan University that her many hours and days of extra study has paid off.

She was awarded a Master of Arts degree by the University.

Thank you, Free Press

It is rare indeed for a newspaper to single out a competitor and highlight its philosophy and ambitions. Last Sunday in the Free Press "Detroit" magazine, reporter Dave Johnston did just that.

In case you missed it or only glanced at the story, it detailed the background of Panax Newspapers, some of its recent dealings, and the views of Panax President John P. McGoff.

The reason we mention this is that it was talking about us. Panax Newspapers publishes Associated Newspapers which includes The Daily Eagle, The Canton Eagle, The Belleville Enterprise and The Romulus Roman; The Macomb Daily (the only daily newspaper in Macomb County); the Mellus; News-Herald; and The Dearborn Press; the Mt. Pleasant Daily Times-News, Alma Daily Record-Leader, Marquette Mining Journal, Escanaba Daily Press and Iron Mountain News. These are in addition to newspapers in Calumet and Lansing, Illinois, and Miami Beach, Florida.

While we appreciate the attention, there are a few passages we might have written differently.

For instance, there was the place which said our papers are "obscure" because they aren't located in big metropolises. The word "obscure" has an elitist ring, hinting there is less worth in serving Macomb County or Marquette than in serving Detroit. We can't buy that. To us, it is just as important that you get the news no matter where you live and you as a reader are no more or less important because of the geographic location of your home.

We are not sure of the meaning of the comparison with a chain of discount department stores, since it wasn't elaborated on. If the meaning was that Panax Newspapers is an exciting, profitable business with many purposes — among which are: providing our communities with the information they need to grow and prosper while earning a profit — it was correct.

Certainly the article was right on the beam in quoting John McGoff that the world is becoming one of producers and nonproducers rather than one of haves and have-nots, and in quoting him that "there is a realignment of political parties coming. One will be businessmen and the blue collar workers, the other the media, bureaucracy, educators and maybe some of great wealth."

The "Detroit" magazine story also reported that John McGoff infrequently writes a column and has it published in all Panax Newspapers, properly identified. He does. It also was reported that he said he had never told an editor "you can't print that."

We can attest that is true. At any rate, we want to tell the Free Press we appreciate their telling the Panax story to some people who may not be familiar with us. And we want to tell you, the reader, you are going to be learning more about us in the future.

As they see it

Resident appreciates parade

To the editor: This is an open letter to the Romulus Bicentennial Committee.

Congratulations. I just have returned from our first annual July 4th Parade—and while it is a shame we had to wait this long for the first one—it was great to see something started. Let's hope this first event will lead to continuous community celebrations that won't be put aside when the Bicentennial events come to an end.

As a "first" the parade was good. May I offer suggestions for future bigger and better ones that I have seen done successfully in other small towns in which I have celebrated the fourth?

Prizes for the floats in at least one category if not several; community children participating in decorated bicycles, with prizes for the bicycle decorations; all community and civic groups participating; all community businessmen asked to participate in a non-commercial manner.

By next year, with plans and organization started way in advance we could really have a whopping celebration. And one more thought. Couldn't our Fire Department arrange for controlled fireworks in a local park, in the evening, as many communities do?

Let's hope next year's parade continues the tradition, is bigger and better, and perhaps longer, starting from the east side of town giving many more citizens a chance to enjoy.

Lib movement goes too far

The great social reform movements in our country usually have followed roughly the same pattern:

First, an injustice or abuse that has been long ignored is noticed by a sensitive few, who begin to crusade against it. These early pioneers usually are regarded as "nuts" or "eccentrics" by the rest of society.

Second, the conscience of the majority awakens; laws and customs are changed (or reinterpreted) to correct the abuse. At this stage, it is the last holdouts against the reform who are considered the "nuts."

Third, with the most serious abuses corrected, the banner of the reform movement falls to the supermilants, who proceed to carry a good cause to a silly extreme, in the process winning back for themselves the designation of "nuts."

Of course, in practice there is a great deal of overlapping, since everyone does not move in unison from one stage to another.

The women's liberation movement at the moment appears to consist of a blend of stages two and three. I readily subscribe to the establishment of legal equality and equality of opportunity for both sexes. But to insist that there should be no difference at all between men and women is ridiculous. Men and women are different, and to the extent that social custom recognizes the difference without demeaning either sex, I see no reason to change.

The process, not surprisingly, has been carried to puzzling extremes by the bureaucracy, as readily demonstrated by a quick peek at the desexing of job titles in the Labor Department's Dictionary of Occupational Titles.

For example, if "salesman" is to become "salesperson," then why does "new car salesman" become "new car sales associate"?

Some of the occupational titles equally are intriguing in both old and new versions. My favorite is "take-off girl (rubber goods)" which becomes "form stripper."

But unquestionably, the biggest losers in the game — owing to an unfortunate duality of spelling — are the seamstresses, who will henceforth be known, if the Labor Department has its way, as "custom sewers."

In labor disputes

Group 'balances' power

One group of people seem to be destined to assume key positions in the settlement of future teacher-school board collective bargaining problems, especially prolonged strikes.

The people are arbitrators, who are being relied on more and more to settle collective bargaining impasses experienced by teachers when negotiating with school boards.

These people—the arbitrators—hold the balance of power in the settlement of such disputes, rivaling school boards in power.

For the last few years, policemen and firemen have had to rely solely on arbitrators to settle irresolvable differences, instead of resorting to strikes.

Now, in teacher-school board collective bargaining disputes, arbitrators become involved only when invited, either by both parties, or by a court.

But, there's the prospect—particularly if there are a large number of teacher strikes this fall—that the Legislature, at some point in the future, will adopt a compulsory binding arbitration law for the settlement of teacher-school board bargaining differences.

This means that an outside person—who, more than likely, will work for the State Department of Labor—will be able to tell local school boards how much they should pay their teachers, what fringe benefits they should get and what their working conditions should be.

It presents a situation where an outside person, one who is not elected, will make crucial economic decisions for a school district.

At the present time, this is being done in a limited number of situations, but if teacher strikes dominate the opening of school this fall, the number of situations where it is used will increase and the chances for a law making it mandatory will improve.

To shed some light on arbitrators—a little known group of people—it's helpful to read a State Supreme Court opinion written by Justice Charles L. Levin on the constitutionality of compulsory binding arbitration for police and firemen. Since the vote on the opinion was split 2-2, it doesn't have any legal effect, except as a guide to how the court could rule in the future.

On holding arbitrators accountable for their decisions, Levin wrote:

"Here (with binding arbitration) decision-making power has been dispersed through so many individual, independent arbitrators that it is not possible to hold any public official or authority responsible for the manner in which the delegated power has been exercised."

Translated, this means that you can't vote an arbitrator out of office, because he is not elected. As a result, he may not be as sensitive to the people's demands as an elected official.

Levin continued: "After the (arbitrator's) award is made the arbitrator goes back to his other pursuits. He does not answer to the chairman of MERC (Michigan Employment Relations Com-

The Enterprise-Roman is committed to bringing the Bicentennial closer to our readers. And as part of that effort, a series, "The Michigan Big Story," will be published weekly. The 76-part series includes topics which contributed to the shaping and direction of the State of Michigan. The impact which this series is certain to have will provide a legacy for future generations of readers as they look back on what we did to celebrate the Bicentennial in Michigan, according to the Michigan Revolution Bicentennial Commission. The series is being prepared by the commission.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (JANUARY 26, 1837)—Michigan Territory achieved statehood today, becoming the 26th state in the union and restoring the national balance between free and slave states.

The formal admission of Michigan to the union followed overwhelming approval of the Bill of Admission by the House of Representatives. The vote was 132-43. The bill passed the Senate by a 25-10 vote three weeks ago.

President Andrew Jackson, after meeting with the jubilant Michigan Congressional delegation, declared that "no territory has shown such eagerness and initiative in its desire to be admitted to the union" and he termed the House vote "a well-deserved action."

"I am especially pleased that much of the controversy which surrounded Michigan's petition to join the union has been dissipated and that both the sovereign State of Ohio and the new State of Michigan are pleased with the compromise that led to the decision," the President said.

Michigan's price of admission was agreement to cede the 468 square-mile Toledo Strip to Ohio in exchange for more than 9,000 square miles of frigid wilderness in the Upper Peninsula north of the Straits of Mackinac.

Former President John Quincy Adams, who spoke for three hours on the House floor last year defending Michigan's rights to the Toledo Strip, said the compromise should not have been necessary.

"Right was clearly on the side of Michigan in its boundary dispute with Ohio," the former President said. "Unfortunately, Congress does not always pay attention to what is right. In this case, Ohio's vote power with support from Indiana and Illinois caused Michigan to get the dirty end of the stick."

Lucius Lyon, sworn in today as one of Michigan's two U.S. senators, said he couldn't agree more with President Adams.

"Since we could not vote in Congress, we had little voice in the final outcome," Sen. Lyon said. "The northern territory we wound up with can only furnish us with Indian blankets and bear meat, while Ohio got a strip of land that is vital to Michigan's economic development."

However, Sen. Lyon conceded that not much was known about the Upper Peninsula and he speculated that it might be much more valuable than anyone now imagines.

Gov. Stevens T. Mason, who engineered approval of the compromise at the so-called Frost-Bitten Convention last month in Ann Arbor, said he was "very pleased" at the outcome of the whole matter.

mission) nor does his livelihood depend on retaining the chairman's favor."

About the arbitrator's power on a governmental unit's purse string's, Levin wrote:

"The arbitrator cannot formally mandate, but his decision may necessitate, an increase in taxes."

And, he continued: "It would be an enormous departure from present concepts of responsible exercise of governmental power if the practice were to develop of resolving difficult political issues in an arbitrator's conference room as an alternative to facing up to vexing problems in the halls of state and local legislatures."

The governing bodies of local units of government, Levin said, would be relinquishing a key responsibility to one person, the arbitrator.

'Dream comes true' at unique peach farm

By MARTA HEPLER
Ent.-Roman Special Writer

After years of serious thought and careful planning, Charles Grover of New Boston is watching the dream he's had for 10 or 12 years come true.

Sunnydale Farms, the peach orchard Grover's always wanted to start, will be opening for business during the first week in August.

The Belleville farm, which will operate a pick-your-own peaches program, is a project Grover and the Ross family of Belleville began about five years ago. Although it is situated on a 119-acre land parcel, only 80 acres presently are developed.

Grover expects the 15,000 or so peach trees to yield 8,000 or 9,000 bushels this season.

"That's pretty good, considering the trees are only four years old," he said. "Someday they should yield 40,000 bushels, or maybe even more."

The operators of Sunnydale Farms are using what they call a high density planting program — 300 trees to an acre instead of 100. The trees are planting 8-feet apart, and rows are 18-feet apart, according to Grover, who said "they do a lot of this kind of planting in Canada."

Although this is the first time Grover has run such an operation on his own, he has had plenty of experience with fruit trees, including his work at the South Huron Orchard Cider Mill.

"I've been in the fruit business one way or another, since I was 15," Grover added.

According to its owner, Sunnydale Farms is the only peach orchard "this side of the state." Grover said that although peaches are a difficult crop, they are in such demand in this area, so he felt it would be worth the trouble it takes to grow them.

"Peaches are one of the hardest crops to grow," he said. "The soil and the site have to be just right."

Starting around Aug. 5, Sunnydale Farms will be open every day from 8 a.m. until dark. A bushel of peaches will run about the same price as one at Detroit's Eastern Market, according to Grover, including the bushel basket which the farm will furnish.

The operators will enforce one rule, though, he added.

"We won't allow kids

under 16 to go into the orchards," he said.

That it is a rule he doesn't necessarily like, but the peach trees are still tender and kids tend to get "a little rowdy," he said. Sunnydale farm is located at 42545 Harris Road, three miles east of Sumpter Road, in Belleville. People interested in picking, should call 699-6661 before coming out.

Meditation lecture set

The International Meditation Society will present an introductory lecture of the technique of transcendental meditation at the Romulus Public Library, located at South Wayne Road and Goddard Road, at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Transcendental meditation (TM) is a simple natural procedure which expands awareness, develops clear thinking and perception and provides a direct, resulting in more dynamic activity and full expression of creative intelligence in daily life, according to a TM spokesman.

It is practiced twice a day for 15-20 minutes while sitting comfortably in a chair with the eyes closed.

The lecture will be given by a teacher of TM who has undergone training under the guidance of Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, the founder of the International Meditation Society.

The lecture is free and open to the public.

Three meets to explain act

Residents, large landowners and farmers in western Wayne County, interested in preserving remaining open land, may find three meetings being staged by the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service of interest.

The meetings will be to explain the provisions of the Farmland and Open Space Preservation Act.

The meetings will be at 8 o'clock tonight at the Plymouth City Hall, 201 S.

Main Street, at the same time on July 23 at the Woodhaven City Hall, 21869 West Road, and at the same time on July 30 at the Romulus City Hall, 11111 S. Wayne Road.

The act is designed to slow the rapid development of lands best suited for agriculture and open space to more intensive use. It provides tax relief to owners of farms and open space who agree not to develop their land for 10 or more years.

Unique opportunity exists for graduates

An unique educational opportunity now exists for high school seniors and high school graduates in the Belleville-Romulus community.

The Michigan National Guard and Lansing Community College have cooperatively developed the Michigan National Guard Co-operative Education Program which will provide members the opportunity to accumulate college credits and earn an accredited associate's degree.

The Michigan National Guard Co-operative

Education Program will provide high school seniors who join the Michigan National Guard and successfully completes active duty for training a minimum of 9-term credit, depending upon the service school completed, according to Lt. Col. Stephen J. Kuchta, Jr. of Belleville.

The credits will be in the areas of:

General P.E., three credits; first aid, three credits; health-hygiene, three credits; military science, eight credits; and specialty training, six credits.

A high school senior who joins the Michigan National Guard is deferred from active duty for training until he or she graduates from high school.

While the student still is attending high school, he or she would attend National Guard meetings one weekend per month and be paid $45.88.

After graduation, the student will depart for active duty for training and be paid $383.40 per month. It takes four to six months to complete training. The trainee then returns home to begin his or her college career.

The Michigan National Guard has many different career fields that the student may pursue such as electronics maintenance, administration and automotive maintenance.

For more information contact the Ypsilanti Army National Guard Armory or the Air National Guard Recruiting office located at Selfridge Air National Guard Base.

Col. Kuchta, a member of the Michigan Air National Guard can be reached by calling 697-7065.

CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS — Three members of the Van Buren Public School District's administration joined Congressman William D. Ford during his annual School Officials Conference in Washington, D.C. On hand for the meetings were Doris Roe, vice-president of the Van Buren Board of Education (from left); Ford; Dr. Richard Mus, board treasurer, and Dale Kaulitz, superintendent of the Van Buren school system.

Four residents welcome tots

Four residents of the Belleville - Romulus community are proud new parents following the births of offspring at Beyer Memorial Hospital recently.

The proud parents include Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Peck of Carmel Street, Belleville, a 9 lb. - 5 oz. boy, born June 27; Mr. and Mrs. Scott Kurtz of Sumpter Road, an 8 lb. - 10 oz. boy, born June 30; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Baumgardner of Denton Road, Belleville, a 7 lb. - 9 oz. boy, born June 28; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith of East Huron River Drive, Belleville, a 7 lb. - 13 oz. boy, born June 1.

Among those in the hospital's surgical section were Beverly Hudgens of Sherwood Road, Belleville; Mrs. Sterling Mullins of Denton Road, Belleville; Anthony Prain of Edwards, Belleville, and Geraldine Kissinger of Belleville Road, Belleville.

The medical patients include Mrs. Arnold Flowers of Martinsville Road, Belleville, and Sidney Somers of Willis Road, Belleville.

Also new parents were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Kurtz, of Sumpter Road, Belleville, 5 lb. - 10 oz. boy, born June 30; Mr. and Mrs. Danny Merritt of Ayers, Belleville, an 8 lb. - 1 oz. boy, born July 2; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Goble of Mott Road, Belleville, an 8 lb. - 1 oz. boy, born July 6, and Mrs. Nathan Mazee of Nash, Belleville, a 7 lb. - 12 oz. boy, born July 6.

Other medical patients included Joyce Gooch of Savage Road, Belleville; Arthur Laskowski of Jackson, Belleville; Robert Tolles of Timberlane, Belleville; Albert Parker of Marlowe, Belleville; Jill Poloskey of Belleville Road, Belleville; Keith Harr of Carraige Lane, Belleville, and Wiley J. Sizemore, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Sizemore of Pine Drive, Belleville.

The surgical patients included Chester Burley of Haggerty Road, Belleville; Chester Robertson of Spencer Road, Belleville, and Tina Twydell of Jackson Street, Belleville.

to be held

Aug. 12-18

The 29th Annual Wayne County 4-H Fair this year will be held on Aug. 12-18 at the Wayne County 4-H Fairgrounds, located at 10871 Quirk Road just off I-94 north of Belleville.

The fair is a non-profit affair, administered by the 21-member Wayne County 4-H Fair Association Inc. The fair directors this week have extended an invitation to area exhibitors, concessionaires and entertainers to be participate in this year's 7-day program.

self-inspections—geared to more comprehensive job safety and health programs.

According to John H. Stender, who heads the U.S. Labor Department's Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the new programs take care of some of the earlier flaws of state programs, specifically inspection without citation.

"Let me say this was not OSHA's decision," Stender said. "The law was clear. When an OSHA inspector discovered a job safety or health violation, it was his responsibility to cite it."

He noted that the logic of this was sound, since some employers would wait for an inspector to arrive before making needed improvements.

But experience under OSHA has shown there is nonetheless, a distinct need for advisory inspections, especially to help small employers come into compliance with job safety and health standards.

Stender said OSHA recently issued new rules under which states without their own job safety and health programs may conduct advisory inspections at the request of employers, with half the needed funds provided by OSHA.

Army Capt. Samuel C. Emerson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Justin T. Emerson of 140 Madelon St., Belleville, has entered the Air Force Institute of Technology (AFIT) to study for a master of science degree.

Located at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, AFIT provides selected Air Force members with resident education in scientific, engineering and other fields.

Capt. Emerson, a 1961 graduate of Belleville High School, received his bachelor of arts degree from Michigan State University. He was commissioned in 1965 through the Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

Navy Airman Appren. James M. Humphrey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calbert J. Jones of 5844 Maple, Romulus, was graduated from Basic Aviation Electricians Mate School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Millington, Tenn.

The 19-week course includes instruction on the maintenance and repair of aircraft instruments, flight stabilization equipment, cabin temperature control units and lighting, ignition and electro-hydraulic systems.

A former student of Romulus High School, he joined the Navy in July 1974.

Jeffery Smith, who lives with his wife, Patricia, at 37088 Huron River Drive, New Boston, has enlisted in the United States Air Force.

Under the delayed enlistment program, Smith will begin basic training Nov. 18, 1975, at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., where he will complete a 6-week basic training program.

As a result of his aptitude skill tests, Smith, a 1973 graduate of Belleville High School, will be trained in the electronics skill field.

Navy Airman Appren. David W. Kimball the son of Harold A. Kimball of 47103 Waters Edge Lane, Belleville, has reported for duty aboard the aircraft carrier USS America, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

A 1965 graduate of Bethel Park High School, Bethel Park, Pa., he joined the Navy in November 1974.

Airman Gerard A. Foisie, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Foisie of 31185 Beverly Road, Romulus, has graduated at Lowry Air Force Base, Colo., from the U.S. Air Force's air armament mechanic course conducted by the Air Training Command.

The airman now is a specialist in the F-4 Phantom jet fighter-bomber weapon control systems. Completion of the course enables him to receive academic credits through the Community College of the Air Force. He is being assigned to George Air Force Base, Calif.

Austin planning license change to save money

Western Wayne County residents may not have to visit the Secretary of State's office every three years, thanks to plan set up by Richard A. Austin.

Austin, the present Secretary of State, said his office is making preparations to switch over to a 4-year driver's license which will result in $1 million savings for his department and the eventual termination of some 60 jobs.

The 4-year license proposal, which was developed by the Secretary of State, will enable the department to devote more time to problem drivers.

Such drivers will be required to renew their license every two years assuring that the longer license period for most drivers will not result in a reduction of traffic safety.

As soon as the governor signs the bill, passed last week by the legislature the department will begin issuing 4-year licenses to all persons applying for a license for the first time and to a portion of those renewing their license. The present license holders will be phased into the new 4-year cycle over a 3-year period to facilitate a smooth workflow for the department.

Commission OKs plans for church

Design plans for the construction of a larger St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church in Van Buren Township have been approved by the Van Buren Township Planning Commission.

Groundbreaking for the new church structure, to be built on the southwest corner of Elwell Road and Huron River Drive, will be held following the 10:30 a.m. services on Sunday.

Parishioners and church officials along with representatives from the architectural and construction firms will leave the present church edifice at 494 W. Columbia Avenue, across from the Belleville High School, and go to the new site for the groundbreaking.

The Rev. Walter L. Henning, pastor of St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, said the present church building constructed about 30 years ago now is too small to meet church's current needs.

The new church will have a seating capacity for more than 200 members. The new structure will be 80-by-58-feet in size.

Scholarship goes to a man of New Boston

New Boston resident, Lawrence Slater, the son of Hazel Slater of 23870 Dugan, has been awarded a Community College Honors Scholarship for the 1975-76 academic year at Eastern Michigan University (EMU).

A new transfer student to EMU, Slater received the scholarship solely on the basis of academic achievement. He will be a junior this fall, studying science.

Belleville Rotary Club awards scholarships

A June graduate and a former graduate of Belleville High School are the recipients of this year's annual scholarship awards, sponsored by the Belleville Rotary Club.

The two awards of $500 each were presented to Jennifer Henning, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henning of 481 High St., Belleville; and Jeffery Gale, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gale of 1029 Studebaker, Ypsilanti.

Gale's award was a continuing scholarship. He presently is a second-year biology major at University of Michigan.

Miss Henning is a first-year education major at Eastern Michigan University.

The scholarships presentations were made at the weekly dinner-meeting of the local Rotary club, held at the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville.

A feature speaker at the meeting and presentation was Dr. Ann Hungerman, professor of education at the University of Michigan.

She spoke on "Profile of Today's College Students."

Planning Commission approves site plans

Site plans for the construction of a new restaurant in Van Buren Township have received the approval of the Van Buren Township Planning Commission.

The proposed Palace Fine Foods Restaurant will be built on the southeast corner of the I-94 Service Drive and Rawsonville Road, the location of the present Lakewood Shopping Center.

It will be constructed on a 1.09-acre land parcel, owned by Schostak Brothers, land developers and builders of Southfield.

The family-type restaurant will be housed in a 28-by-100-foot structure, designed by Alfred DiMaltie Building Co. of Lathrop Village. It will be a complete restaurant facility with parking available for 45 cars.

Vilcan-Lemans & Associates Inc. of Southfield, the township planning consultants, also approved the site plans with some minor changes.

Township dissolves historic research group

A research committee set up by the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees to find ways of converting the former Van Buren Township Hall into a historical museum and senior citizens facility has been dissolved.

The dissolution of the 3-member Old Township Hall Committee, which was formed in March 1973, was approved by the township board at its July 8 meeting.

Although the committee, headed by George Craven, did accomplish its major goal — state designation of the old township hall as historical landmark — further committee activity slowed down when attempts to procure a federal grant to assist township financing in the conversion and renovating the more than 100-year-old structure were unsuccessful.

The former township hall and administration offices are located at Main and Roys streets in Belleville's central business district.

Present occupants of a portion of the building are

The Belleville Enterprise, the community's newspaper, the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce and a realty firm.

Township Clerk Patricia Cullin and Jane Wyman, a committee member, who resigned in May for personal reasons, said that the committee's attempts to get federal money to help defray the cost of proposed conversion plans for the historical site were unsuccessful.

"We had tried to get a federal grant to assist the township in converting the old township hall into a township museum but couldn't get any federal funds," Mrs. Wyman said. "Another major concern was the installation of an elevator in the old building that the proposed conversion and renovating program would require. The expenditure for this would be between $15,000 and $20,000."

Through the untiring efforts of Mrs. Wyman and Craven, the Michigan Historical Commission formally designated the old township hall as a historical site with listing by both state and national historical commissions, officials said.

Mrs. Cullin, in commenting on the dissolution of the Old Township Hall Committee, said that the Van Buren Bicentennial

Committee, depending on the receipt of funds, will work toward establishing a township archives for the use by township administration and residents.

Mrs. Cullin is co-chairman of the Bicentennial Committee.

Cut your peak winter heating bills as much as 45%.

Join our 12-Month Budget Payment Plan now.

Our 12-Month Budget Payment Plan has never made more sense than it does now.

We know it's tough to budget for monthly Gas bills that can be as much as six times higher in the cold winter months than in these hot summer ones. The 12-Month Budget Payment Plan lets you even out your Gas bills for the year ahead with 12 monthly installments.

Here's how the Plan works. First, we determine how much Gas you used last year and calculate its total cost at today's rates. Then we divide that total cost by 12 to give you the budget amount you can expect each month from August of this year through July of next year, no matter how cold it might get during the winter.

Results? Your mid-winter budget bills can be as much as 45% below what your normal peak heating payments would otherwise have been.

Of course, if you saved Gas last year by installing ceiling insulation, storm doors and windows or permanently dialed down your thermostat, your monthly budget bills will be even lower than if you hadn't taken these energy conservation measures.

If any adjustments need to be made to your budget payment amount during the year, we'll notify you. Or, if you overpay or underpay a bit for the budget year, we'll make the necessary adjustment on your August 1976 bill.

To enroll, just return the postage paid card we're sending you. Or if you've misplaced it, call us, and we'll sign you up over the phone.

Our Gas is still your lowest cost fuel. And our 12-Month Budget Payment Plan will make it a lot more convenient to pay for. Enroll today.

New day-care facility will open in Belleville

A new child care facility will open Sept. 2 to serve the Belleville area. The day-care facility will be located at 41505 I-94 service drive and will be called Belleville Child Care Center. The Center will be licensed by the Michigan Department of Social Services, carry the approvals of the state fire marshal and Wayne County Department of Health.

The center will provide for the physical, social and emotional needs of each child, with special emphasis on health, safety supervised and planned play, according to the director.

The center will schedule planned program activities and children will be encouraged to choose activities and follow through with them during these times. The rest of the day will be spent in supervised free-play throughout the center and play yard.

The Belleville Child Care Center's operating policy will be a function of a 4-member board of directors to insure high quality, the director added.

The Belleville Child Care Center's directors are Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsey. Ramsey is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University. Presently he is the midwest regional representative for the Vitrendent Marketing Corp.

Mrs. Ramsey attended Lakeland College in central Illinois. Mrs. Ramsey gained her child care experience in three states over the past five years. Her most recent experience was doing volunteer work at the Carousel Nursery a co-op located in Belleville.

The Ramseys have lived in the Belleville area for the past three years.

The Belleville Child Care Center's location was selected with care to insure easy access for local residents. The building is one of the few in this area designed specifically for the care of children by architect Al Paas who has had extensive experience in designing elementary education facilities, Ramsey said.

The building was constructed by Charles Paas, a resident of the Belleville area for the past 13 years.

The center will be open for public inspection Aug. 17 which will be the official open house.

For information concerning the Child Care Center, call 697-4523 or 697-5311.

FACILITY TO OPEN — The Belleville Child Care Center, a new facility, will open Sept. 2 to serve the Belleville area. Located on the I-94 service drive west of Haggerty Road, the center will provide physical, social and emotional needs of each child, according to its directors. An open house will be held Aug. 17.

Mahalak eyes jobs for state workers

Michigan workers would have priority for jobs authorized by the State Building Authority under legislation introduced by State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak (D-Romulus).

The bill would require that all construction contracts let by the building authority contain a clause granting employment priority to Michigan residents in the contractor's work force.

"With unemployment in Michigan as bad as it is, it is only right that Michigan workers have preference for jobs that become available," Mahalak said. "This especially is true in state construction contracts. We have a responsibility to take care of our own people first."

He said he introduced the bill primarily because workers in the district he represents are not being hired for construction work, including state construction, while the jobs are going to workers from nearby areas of Ohio.

"This legislation is not intended to hamper in any way operations of the State Building Authority or the contractors who work for it," Mahalak added. "If Michigan workers are not readily available, the contractors would be free to hire workers from anywhere they want. The bill simply says that when our own people want the jobs, and can do them, they must have first choice for the jobs."

"The building authority generates a great deal of employment. It is a state agency, paid for by Michigan taxpayers. I feel it has a responsibility to those taxpayers to put Michigan workers into any construction work it authorizes, as much as possible."

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP BOARD MINUTES

REGULAR MEETING MINUTES
JULY 8, 1975

Meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

Supervisor Gollwitzer called the meeting to order at 7:30 P.M. Members present were: Supervisor Gollwitzer, Clerk Cullin, Treasurer York, and Trustees Maton, Domen, Kelly and Kureth. Also present were: Attorney Axe, Engineer Kelley, Sec'y. Soja and approximately 11 interested citizens.

Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to table approval of the 6-24-75 minutes until the next meeting as some members failed to get their copies. Carried.

Clerk Cullin read a letter from the Michigan Construction Code Commission accepting our Ordinance 5-13-75 to administer and enforce the Michigan State Plumbing Code.

Mr. Lampert, representing David Cohen, again appealed to the Board for permission to tie into Ypsilanti sewer system for sewer service to his proposed mobile home park on Rawsonville Rd. He was told the engineers report was not ready. A discussion followed. Motion Cullin, support Kureth, to table any action until the next regular meeting for the engineers report. Carried.

After reviewing the proposed shed design and price quotes for a storage shed at Denton Cemetery a motion was made by Domen to build a wood shed and take the Ammerman Lumber Co. quote of $455.00 for materials. Motion failed for lack of support. Motion Maton, support Cullin, to build a wood shed and accept the price quote from Church's Lumber Co. for $361.00. Carried. Township employees will furnish the labor for construction of the shed.

Mr. G. Rohler spoke to the Board in behalf of his request for rezoning from R1B to C-1 and RMH on approximately 42 acres of land on Belleville Rd. north of Tyler. Domen, Kelly and Maton all stated that he had a well run mobile home park. Clerk Cullin stated that the Township should maintain balance in growth of the Township by zoning. The Township had more mobile home spaces per capita than most surrounding communities. More discussion followed. Motion Cullin, support Kureth, to approve the C-1 part of the re-zoning request. Roll call vote was taken and carried unanimously. Motion by Maton, support Domen, to approve the RMH rezoning request. Roll call vote was taken and carried 4 to 3.

Yeas: Trustee Kelly, Trustee Maton, Trustee Domen and Treasurer York

Nays: Supervisor Gollwitzer, Clerk Cullin and Trustee Kureth. Motion Domen, support Maton, to terminate the Old Township Hall Committee and send a letter of thanks to the members. Carried.

Motion Kureth, support Kelly, to authorize purchase of stops for the other gate at the dam from the lowest bidder. Carried. (lowest bidder was Boelter for $3200). Motion York, support Cullin, to approve the 1974-75 audit report as submitted by Post, Smythe, Lutz and Ziel. Carried.

Motion Domen to charge Sugden the $1,000. permit fee and 45¢ a yard for removal of sand and replacing with fill yard for yard. After more discussion Domen withdrew his motion. Motion Kureth, support Maton, to charge Sugden the $1,000 permit fee for sand removal and 45¢ a yard for the sand and then pay Sugden for the replacement of fill up to the amount of $1,000. Carried 6 to 1. Kelly voted NO. It was stated that there was only about 20,000 yards of sand to be removed and it wasn't worthwhile to the contractor to pay the $1,000 permit fee as he would be replacing the sand yard for yard with other fill. The money obtained from the sale of sand would be put in the recreation fund.

There was much discussion on the boat docking off of Old Haggerty Rd. Mr. Heifner stated it was creating problems of theft, vandalism and nuisance. Possibilities were discussed of fencing, posting off-limit after 10 p.m., etc. Motion by Kelly, support Maton, to refer this to the Township Attorney to check to see what the Township can legally do as the property does belong to the State Highway Dept. Carried. Motion Maton, support Kureth, to accept the Bldg. Dept., Dog Wardens, Police and Fire Dept. No. 1 reports as presented. Carried.

Clerk Cullin read a letter from Ypsi Township stating the Board had appointed Mr. Winters, Mr. Daniels and Mr. Wilbanks to the Airport Commission representing Ypsi Township.

Clerk Cullin read an invitation from Sumpter Twp. to the Van Buren Twp. Board to be part of their parade to be held Saturday July 12 at 11 A.M.

Motion Kelly, support Kureth, to approve the voucher lists as presented. Carried.

Mr. Kapelanski wanted to know what had been resolved about the traffic problems at the water spring on Haggerty Rd. Mr. Gollwitzer stated he met with the Road Commission and they verbally agreed the water could be piped directly into the creek. Motion Cullin, support Kelly, to have the Attorney write a letter to the Wayne County Sheriff's office requesting accident reports on all accidents occurring in Van Buren Twp. Carried. The Township has no way of knowing how many accidents have happened in that area near the spring and with these reports it would help to determine what could be done.

Mrs. Howard asked if a greenbelt noise barrier could be put between the Expressway and Van Buren Estates. The Township would check on this.

Motion Domen, support Kelly, to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 9:15 P.M.

Respectfully submitted
PATRICIA CULLIN, CLERK
Van Buren Township

How to have a great family vacation without going too far.

Stay right in your own backyard. Chances are, there are plenty of exciting things to do as a family that aren't that far away. Like visiting a national park. Go fishing. Or camping. Or taking a short trip to the nearest big city or point of interest. And remember. If you're a little short of money for your vacation, see HFC about a Traveloan. You may borrow up to $1500 from Household Finance to pay for your next family vacation. And that'll go a long way. Even if you don't.

Upsets rock ball league

By TOM MOORADIAN
Ent-Roman Sports
Editor

Huron Valley Steel's once comfortable 3-game cushion has been deflated by upstart Seven-Eleven which jolted the Romulus Parks and Recreation's Class A leader 6-5.

The loss last week left Huron atop of the league. However, Romulus Welding, thanks to a pair of victories last week, moved within one game of the league-leader.

Sports

More sports on Pg. 13A

Romulus Welding survived a scare from third place Baum's Funeral Home 6-5, and also whipped Howard's Dairy Bar 5-1 earlier in the week.

Meanwhile, over in League "B", Bean Pot continues to hold a precarious 1-game edge over the Beer Coolers. And the two are yet to meet. Bean Pot pulled out a chilling 9-8 victory over the Jaycees to maintain its grip on first place, while Beer Cooler enjoyed a 7-3 triumph over McMullen Tool.

Seven-Eleven exploded for five runs in the top of the fourth to pull down a stubborn Morris-Levin into the loss column 10-7.

Mel Allen continued his torrid hitting as he hammered his ninth home run of the season to pace the Seven-Eleven attack. Seven-Eleven also stretched its winning streak to six games.

Allen had a pair of singles and drove in three runs. Teammates Colin Jordan and Rod Holcomb each had two hits, both singles.

Losing pitcher Ross Holms and Dave Holland each drilled two hits in four trips off of winning pitcher Jeff Hogan.

Jerry Pawloski kept Romulus Welding's slim title hopes alive as he belted in two runs with one of his two hits in a 5-1 victory over Howard Dairy. Teammates Bill Reiber, who tripled in a run, and Paul DeBusscher whose single led to two runs, paced the winners.

Pawloski missed the shutout when he served up a run in the second inning.

Hogan pitched a 3-hitter as Seven-Eleven turned back league-leading Huron Valley Steel, scrambling the title race. Allen and Ron Buckley each socked two singles and batted in two runs apiece in the upset.

A last of the seventh 2-run rally lifted Beck Howell over Difco 8-7 as Ivan Kinshella tossed a 6-hitter. In the eighth, Don Feberline singled and moved to second when Gary Truskowski also singled. An error moved up the base runner then Kinshella belted a sacrifice fly which led to one run, and an errant throw to third got past the infielder which scored the winning run.

Professional scouts look at two area ball players

Philadelphia Phillies, baseball scouts apparently have seen signs of professionalism in two Romulus ball players who were recently named to the All-Area Team.

They're pitcher Rick Britz, a fast-ball artist who compiled a 10-3 won-lost record and sported a 1.40 ERA average, and Bob Griffin who ended his prep career with a .302 batting average.

Britz, a right-hander, and Griffin, who has turned his thoughts to the infield, have been invited by the Philly scouts to attend camp in Toledo, Ohio. The two young players checked into the camp last night.

"We were invited by one of their scouts," said Griffin who played three years of varsity ball at Lutheran West before transferring to Romulus in his senior year. "It'll give us some valuable experience."

Both Britz and Griffin are starters for manager Bill Cummings, playing for a team out of Ypsilanti. The team is competing in an Ann Arbor high school league and also competes in Connie Mack.

Britz and Griffin probably will be heading for Olivet College in the fall though, unless, of course, the Philly scouts see something that they want now.

ANNOUNCING THE FINISH-IT-YOURSELF HOUSE

These days, you're not likely to find a $40,000 house selling for $25,000. But if you're willing to do some work, you can earn yourself a bargain. We'll even finance it for you. Here's how it works.

CHOOSE YOUR LOCATION

First, decide on the area where you'd like to live. Then find a nice piece of property and buy it.

If you already own a building lot, you're that much further ahead.

MODIFY THE HOUSE PLANS

Choose one of our 78 designs. You can modify the plans to suit your family size, your way of living, and your budget.

You also select the roofing, siding, and all the interior appointments such as kitchen and bath accessories, doors, windows, flooring, lighting fixtures and so forth.

This way, you can make your home just what you want it to be.

OLD-FASHIONED CONSTRUCTION

We do the heavy construction and completely enclose your home.

You'll find that we don't compromise on quality. Our materials and building specifications are considered old-fashioned in this day of the jerry-built wonder, but that doesn't bother us. We've been building quality homes for almost 30 years and we're too proud to change now.

FINISHING YOUR HOME

You can get everything you need to finish your home—right down to the last nail—from us. And we give you instructions for all the finishing work.

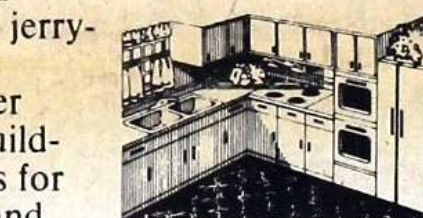

Things like plumbing and wiring aren't as tough as you might think, even for people who've never done more than hang a picture.

You can do the work yourselves, get your friends to help out, or even sub-contract some of it.

The more work you do, the more you'll save. But even if you hire people to help, you'll be saving a sizeable amount by eliminating the general contractor's profits. And when you're finished, you'll not only have a home that's worth a lot more than you paid for it, you'll have a real feeling of accomplishment.

WHAT ABOUT FINANCING?

Because we believe in our homes and in the people who buy them, we help arrange the financing.

Your down payment won't put a big dent in your savings. (The cost of your building lot may be the only major cash outlay you'll have to make.)

If local financing is not available, we'll finance your home through the construction period. When your home is completed, we'll help you obtain a permanent mortgage.

104-PAGE CATALOG

If our finish-it-yourself plan makes sense to you, send the coupon to Capp Homes, and we'll mail you our full-color "Idea Book" of 78 plans.

Why let the high cost of housing force you to settle for less?

Here comes the PARADE
A FIRST for Romulus on July 4

...and there it goes until next year

Gals in Romulus rec league eye playoff berths

With the playoffs just around the corner, the gals in the Romulus Women's Softball League must either make their move for a playoff spot or wait another year.

And the 2001 ball club looked good in beating back the Hustlers 2-4 as Diane Nairmore pitched an excellent game. She also did the job at the plate where she laced two home runs.

Patty McLean slammed four hits and Anne Szyndlor also had a circuit clout for the winners.

In other action, S.W.A.T. disposed of the Euphoria 11-6. Kelly Deline, Barb Fortune and Candy Griffin each slapped three hits. Teammate Linda Weber chipped in with two.

Tracy Lobczak and Charlene Cole teamed up for a double play to erase one of Euphoria's serious scoring threats.

The Foul Balls continued to play solid defense as they took the sting out of The Tarantulas 14-8. Sharon Priestaf joined in with Cathy Rollins to form the nucleus of the hitting attack. Each had a pair of home runs.

Winning pitcher Emily Hines was in control most of the way. Sharon Priestaf turned a line drive into a double play.

The Tarantulas received an excellent hitting effort from Mary Dziedzic who blasted a home run. Teammate Vicky Braward also had a roundtripper.

Cheryl Oaks batted 3-for-3 and Denise Gabany connected for two singles in her three appearances at the plate. Sue Kramer got aboard twice via walks.

The 69'ers and Kerettes staged one of the better games of the week with the 69'ers emerging atop a 5-3 score. It was the winner's third straight victory as Paulette Mahalok collected two hits in three trips and Debbie DePoole chipped in a perfect 2-for-2.

One of the highlights of the game was Pat Suski's stellar performance at shortstop.

The Kerettes held the 69'ers scoreless until the sixth inning when the winners rallied for all five of their runs.

Meanwhile, the Bleepers found its way into the winning column at the expense of the Demin Dolls 13-7. Connie McGee and Barb Kalis split six hits between them to help the winners post their first win.

Tourney planned

The Romulus Parks and Recreation Department has set the dates for its annual Open Tennis Tournament which will be held on the Romulus High courts.

The dates for the tourney are Aug. 8-10. Deadline to submit entries is Aug. 1.

The events include: singles — men, women, boys and girls (16-years-old and under); doubles — men, women, boys and girls (16-years-old and under).

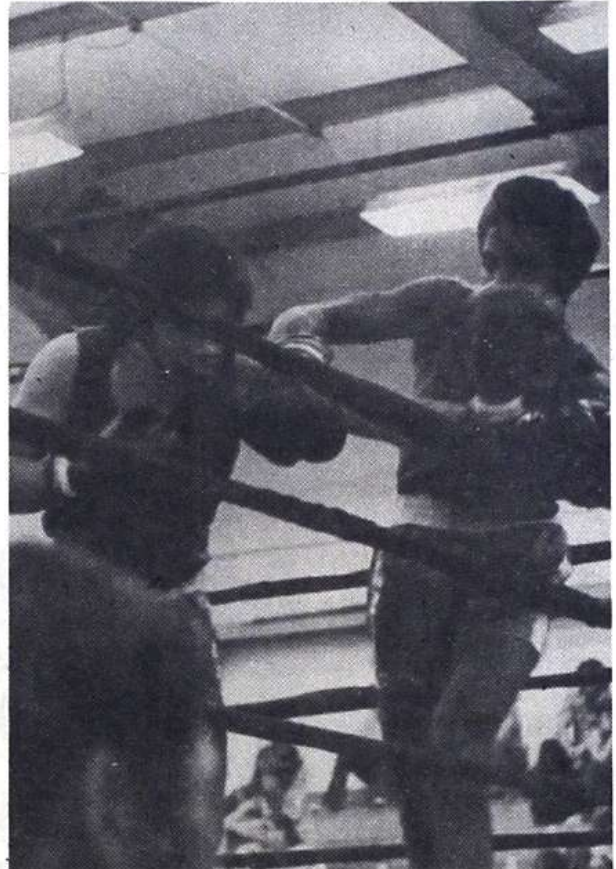

The matches will be scored on a best of three sets.

Each player must have at least one new can of U.S. Tennis and Lawn Association balls.

The entry fee for the adult, singles and junior doubles is $1, while the adults doubles and the junior singles is $1.50 and 50 cents, respectively.

The non-residents fee is $2 for adult singles and $3 for adult doubles. It's $1.50 and $1 for junior doubles and singles, respectively.

For further information, contact the Recreation Department at 941-0666.

Reel atop league play

Reel Realty sewed up the regular season baseball championship in the Romulus Senior Little League as manager Chuck Cady's ball club amassed a perfect 7-0 record on the season.

The nearest challenger to the league leader, Polkadot Party Store is behind the frontrunner by four games and needs a minor miracle to catch up.

The league also picked its All-Star lineup which included starting pitcher Mark Pokewinski and Kevin Hernandez (SS), Victor Bird (2B), Kelly Summerfield (1B), Mark Marciglia (3B), Joe Thomas (LF), Mike McCloskey (CF), Johnny Bell (RF) and Terry Mink (C).

Also members of the All-Star team are Craig Adams, Daniel Cutcher, Paul Hess, James Sullivan and Tony Cholette.

AUTO FACTS

by Jr. Kosin

Buying a used car entails a systematic plan for inspecting the car, and detecting hidden faults. When examining the outside of the car, for example, look for new paint. The acrylic paint sprayed on new cars at the factory is capable of surviving almost any sort of weather conditions for at least three years. So if you find new paint on a late model used car, it is a pretty safe bet that it is covering a repaired body. Look for a different color on the inside edges of the door frame, or under the hood.

Keep your car running efficiently by giving periodic tune-ups. Pick up the parts and tools you need from KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan, Inkster. We are known as the "House of a Million Parts" and have just about everything you need to keep your car in A-1 condition. We specialize in parts and accessories for all foreign cars as well as domestic cars. Should you need to turn brake drums, do valve work, or even rebuild your engine, you can have this work done by expert machinists in our complete machine shop. Call us at 563-3894. We are open daily from 8 A.M. until 8 P.M. and on Saturdays until 5 P.M. Master Charge and Bank Americard are honored.

800 attend program to benefit gal's league

More than 800 fans turned out at Romulus High to watch a fund-raising AAU boxing program which was put on to help the city's women's softball league.

"It was excellent," said Gary Johnson, one of the persons involved in organizing last Saturday's boxing program. "We had an excellent turnout and I know that everyone enjoyed the boxing."

Johnson said his group is considering making the program an annual affair to help support the women's softballers in the city.

Bride-to-be 'showered' at two parties

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

Two Belleville High School graduates, Jan Mosora and Dave Remus, will join the ranks of the newlyweds July 26 when they repeat their marriage vows at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

Recently Jan has been caught up in the whirlwind of last minute activities including two bridal showers given by friends.

Bette Eberle and Linda Speer, both of Ypsilanti, co-hosted the first party June 26 at the Eberle Home. The 18 guests were mostly co-workers of Jan's from Woodstone Inn of Belleville.

The peach and yellow color scheme of the wedding was carried out in the decor with the gifts being arranged beneath a cluster of yellow bells. Games and a buffet lunch highlighted the party.

The second of Jan's showers, also tagged "miscellaneous", was held at the home of Pam Wiese in Belleville. Pam and Rhonda Reed, who will be part of the bridal coterie, planned the party along with Linda Schlund, also of Belleville.

Several wedding theme games were played after which Jan opened her gifts and a buffet lunch was served. The 20 attending were young friends and former classmates of the honoree who were in on the hush-hush arrangements which made the party a complete surprise to the bride-elect. She assumed she and her fiancé merely were attending a couple's party at the Wiese's.

Jan is the daughter of Jack and Helen Mosora, recently of Belleville and now of Onkama, Mich. Her fiancé is the son of Jerry and Ann Remus of Belleville.

College grad honored

Dawn Bruder, a recent graduate of Eastern Michigan University, was the honored guest at a reception given by her parents; Al and Shirley Straub of Elwell Road, Belleville.

The party was attended by guests from East Rockwood, Carleton, Romulus, Willis, Tipton and Belleville. Dawn's brother, Keith Bruder, was in from Chicago, Ill. and showed slides of his recent trip to London, England.

Among the guests to congratulate Dawn on her bachelor of science degree, was her grandfather, David Fenn of Belleville.

A buffet dinner was served and the late afternoon was spent in baseball games and visiting.

'75' is the big year

1975 has a double meaning for Mrs. Kirk (Mable) Bassett of Westland, formerly of Romulus, since she was born at the turn of the century and, on July 5, marked her 75th birthday.

Affectionately known as "Grandma Bassett", she completely was surprised when the typical July 4 picnic she thought she was attending turned out to be a surprise for her diamond birthday.

All her children had a hand in giving the party and all were present for the gala event including her son, Norman and family, of Riverside, Calif., and her daughter, Shirley Hamm of San Antonio, Texas.

The other Bassett children include James of Taylor; Mrs. James (Bernice) Bachman of Belleville; Mrs. Marvin (Virginia) Lange of Romulus; Mrs. Bud (Lois) Driver of Wayne; LeRoy of Romulus and Mrs. James (Dorothy) Curtis of Westland.

Other members of the clan in attendance were 21 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. Eight grandchildren from San Antonio, Texas were unable to be present.

Other guests from out of town were from Mt. Clemens, Muskegon and the state of Kansas. The festivities included volleyball, a campfire, lots of family chatter and birthday cake. The celebration also marked the first time the family had been together in more than 10 years.

Baby well outfitted

Charles and Muriel Harris of Belleville recently arrived home after a month-long stay in Lakeside, Mont. where they awaited the birth of their new grandchild and then stayed on to help a bit.

The newcomer, a 7 lb. - 6 oz. boy, arrived June 17 in Kalispell, Mont. and was named Charles Edward Jr. His mother is the former Judy Brooks of Royal Oak.

Not only did the new father have the pleasure of boasting "it's a boy" but his friends put their heads together and came up with a surprise stag baby shower in his honor. With Moose Miller, a local businessman, as instigator, the party was held at the Trap Club in Somers, Mont. and resulted in a maple playpen and high chair, Royal Doulton baby dinnerware and a $50 bank account for the new heir.

The senior Harris, in on the fun, were responsible for "delivering" the new dad to the party.

LIKE GRANDMA USED TO MAKE — Without all the fuss and ballyhoo, you can make a lemon drink that will compare to grandma's old style lemonade or, perhaps, even top the taste. To make this lemon fruit flip, use the new lemonade flavor drink mix that tastes like old fashioned lemonade, not too tart and not too sweet.

For your recipe file

Yesterday's taste is today's drink

In grandma's day, Sunday afternoon was the time when friends and neighbors came calling and grandma invariably had a lovely pitcher filled with cold lemonade, ready to serve.

To bring back that good flavor, General Foods (GF) is introducing a new lemonade-flavor drink mix. It tastes like good old-fashioned lemonade, not too tart and not too sweet with 100 percent natural lemon flavor, a GF spokesman said. Simply add water. Sugar is already in. Each canister which makes 10 quarts of lemonade and is easily stored on the shelf has a measuring scoop included.

To enjoy that good old-fashioned lemonade flavor in a new way, try this unusual and great tasting thirst quencher, "Lemon Fruit Flip." A few whirls in a blender combines the ingredients into a smooth, creamy drink. The lemonade flavor from the drink mix is so good, you'll feel like you squeezed the lemons yourself. Your guests and family will think they've just had a special old-fashioned treat.

LEMON FRUIT FLIP

- 2 scoops lemonade flavor drink mix
- 1 medium ripe banana, cut in chunks
- ¼ cup water
- 2 cups crushed ice
- 2 tablespoons light rum (optional)

Combine drink mix, banana, and water in blender container, and blend until smooth. Add crushed ice and rum; blend until ice is almost melted. Makes 2 cups or 4 servings.

Waltz church setting for double ring vows

Bouquets of mums and lighted candles set the mood for the recent marriage of Kimberly Ann Gibson and Dennis Albert Korotney, both of Belleville. The couple pledged their nuptial vows June 28 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Waltz.

Pastor John Schaible presided at the 2 p.m. rite and Kevin Otter of New Boston was at the organ to play music from "Romeo and Juliet."

Double rings were exchanged before some 100 relatives and close friends.

The bride is the daughter of Emily Gibson of 40755 Judd Road, Belleville, and Gerald Gibson of Sturgis, Mich. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Korotney of 20323 Haggerty Road, Belleville.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Lonny Gibson, the bride held a bouquet of mums and red roses. Her floor-length gown of polyester crepe was fashioned with an A-line skirt, full long sleeves and a high neckline with a V-yoke of eyelet for accent. Her elbow length veil carried out the eyelet motif.

Matron of honor was Paula Burke of Belleville who donned a white halter style gown imprinted with blue flowers and added a wrist corsage of matching blue mums.

Ricky Burke of Belleville was asked to be best man and James Simpson Jr. of New Boston the groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gibson chose to wear a floor-length gown of peach polyester styled in the A-line mode. The bridegroom's mother donned a formal gown of aqua double knit fabric. Both were presented with corsages of white mums.

The Waltz Hall in Waltz was reserved for the reception which followed. Some 174 guests attended.

The bride, a Huron High School graduate, currently is attending Virginia Farrell Beauty School in Lincoln Park. Her husband attended Belleville High School and is employed at Complete Mobil Home Service in Taylor.

La Leche League to meet

The Belleville Area La Leche League will hold its first meeting of the new series at 7:30 p.m. July 21 at the home of Sherry Rydinsky of 46731 Ayres Road, Belleville.

The name, La Leche, is Spanish and means "the milk." A non-sectarian, non-profit organization, the La Leche League's purpose is to help encourage "good mothering through breastfeeding."

The group meets the third Monday of each month. A series of four meetings includes informal discussion of different phases of breastfeeding. The topics are: "The Advantage of Breastfeeding to Mother and Baby," "The Art of Breastfeeding and Overcoming Difficulties," "The Baby Arrives; the Family and the Breastfed Baby" and "Nutrition and Weaning."

All women who are interested in nursing their babies are invited, as are their babies. If you are a wife and hope someday to have children; if you are a grandmother and are interested in your grandchildren's welfare, you are welcome. For further information, contact Marcia Linville at 699-9405 or Peg Bodenmiller at 697-9546.

Second son born to Paul Studers

Three-year old Paul Aaron Studer has a new baby brother to look in these early summer days. Matthew Robert Studer, who was born June 14 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, weighed in at 8 lbs. - 10 ozs.

The two youngsters are the sons of Paul and Susan Studer of Fret Road, Belleville. Their grandparents are Mrs. Paul R. Studer and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Clark Sr., all of Belleville.

Quotes worth quoting--

Send us your bridal information

Want to share that "special day" with those who are unable to be present, in person, for your wedding ceremony? We'll write the details of your wedding in story form for you - and at no charge - if you'll simply follow a few guidelines.

The Belleville Enterprise and Romulus Roman offer bridal questionnaires for you to fill out as well as engagement forms for announcing the "start of it all." These forms include all the pertinent questions involved with your marriage or betrothal.

Forms may be picked up at our office, 116 Fourth St., Belleville (we're in the old Township Hall) anytime during the week between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. We will also mail forms if a telephone request is made. Call Lee Smith, Suburban Living Editor, 697-9191.

Excess checking account money can earn 5 1/4% interest with Tel-Transfer.

What is excess checking account money? It's more money in your checking account than you need. It's your idle funds and every extra $100 could earn you $5.35 per year in a Tel-Transfer Account. Here's how.

With a Tel-Transfer account you can transfer funds from your checking account directly into (or out of) a Wayne Federal daily interest savings account all by phone. Once-idle money in your checking account then earns 5 1/4% daily interest, compounded quarterly, paid from the day of your deposit to the day of your withdrawal. Tel-Transfer requires a minimum account balance of just $1,000. There's no service charge and no limit on the number of transactions you may make. (However we require each transfer in or out of your TT account be $500 or more).

For more information on how your excess checking account money can earn interest please call 721-8000 and ask for our "Special Service" Extension.

Here's how much a Tel-Transfer account can earn you ...

Interest Earned In
Deposit	15 Days	30 Days	90 Days	180 Days

Let a good book help fill your leisure hours

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

"Summertime, and the livin' is easy..." may have been true in the days of yore but today easy summer livin' is when and where you're able to find it or squeeze it in.

After an 8-hour day in the office, factory or field or on the road, a person then has to contend with the household duties that are musts. There always are the yard to care for, the grass to cut, the animals to tend or the garden to weed, cultivate or irrigate.

Yet, despite the extra hours of light daylight savings time provides we find ourselves working longer in the evenings and sitting down less. But, luckily, there always are the week ends and those precious moments to take breathers.

Be prepared for those rare times by having a pile of books ready and at hand. Choose a variety and then let your mood pick the theme. Feeling a bit depressed? Have something light and humorous on hand to lift those dragging spirits.

Have those headlines in the paper set you to wondering about your government, the legislature, the judiciary? Get yourself into one of the many tomes which deal with the subject of your country's leadership. Dig and delve and learn through your local library.

The garden is beginning to produce like mad. Right? What are you going to do about its harvest? Hie on down to the library and investigate that cookbook corner which includes canning, preserving and freezing. You're also apt to come up with several new recipes to vary those summer meals and which will make use of all that squash and corn, those beans and cucumbers, the beets, carrots and potatoes.

And, of course, there is always the "best seller" list to check out and from which to choose. The Romulus Library, located at the corner of Wayne and Goddard roads, has quite a group of the "biggies" and, having read some of them, they ARE worth looking through.

FICTION

"The Promise of Joy" by Allen Drury. A novel about a strong president who is threatened with impeachment for his stand against the Communists who are supporting war against the U.S. in Gorotland and Panama, ending with his being asked to mediate between Russia and China who are on the verge of nuclear war.

"The Moneychangers" by Arthur Hailey. The author of "Airport" and "Hotel" has a new one, a novel about the inside operation of a giant bank. It concerns the in-fighting for control and a devastating financial crisis precipitated by high level corruption.

"Going, Going" by Sumner Locke Elliott. Set in the future, this novel deals with the interplay between a freedom-loving individual and the technological society that controls her.

"The Spreewald Collection" by Donald MacKenzie. Trying to go straight, but broke and out of a job, an ex-convict agrees to one more job. A midnight novel of suspense.

"The Pride of the Trevallions" by Carola Salisbury. After her father dies, Joanna Goodacre is taken from Jamaica by Benedict Trevallion to Mallion Castle, his family's home in Cornwall. There she becomes Benedict's wife, but her happiness is marred by a mysterious family secret involving Benedict's supposedly dead older brother.

"Salt is Leaving" by John Boynton Priestley. The disappearance of two people with no apparent connections leads to murder.

NON-FICTION

"I Think I Can" by William Breisky. A father tells how his normal, happy 2-year old daughter was hit by massive brain damage, became blind, speechless and limp and how she fought her way back to health.

"Handbook of Parliamentary Procedure" by Henry Alexander Davidson. Step by step terms to present the rules and practices of parliamentary procedure.

"There are Giants in the Earth" by Michael Grumley. An examination of the evidence concerning the existence of giant ape-like creatures, the Yeti in the Himalayas, the Di-Di in South America and Sasquatch in the Pacific Northwest, tracing their migration and exploring their relationship to man.

"Successful Gardening in the Shade" by Helen Van Pelt Wilson. Offers advice for coping with the special problems of gardening in the shade, explaining how to recognize the requirements and limitations of this type of gardening and suggesting various kinds of flowers, plants, shrubs, etc. which thrive in the shade.

No souvenirs for visitors to Belleville

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

I had a rather interesting group of visitors at the office—the Belleville family—who'd been hearing about our City of Belleville for years and finally took the time for a visit to their "namesake" (if you can refer to a city-family in that manner.)

The Bellevilles—Walter and Marie, their daughter, Patt, and son, Jerry—reside at 7285 Senator, Detroit. Marie, who works for the city, took her day off especially to see what Belleville was all about and to carry home "all kinds of souvenirs with THEIR name" on them.

Well, would you believe there wasn't a single item in the area (save for The Belleville Enterprise to which they subscribed) with the wording "Belleville" on it. Nary a T-shirt, sweatshirt, postal card, ash tray, key chain, NOTHING!

The very pleasant foursome went away a bit nonplused to say the least. They just couldn't believe a city would have nothing at all to offer as a memento for visitors or tourists.

Seems to this reporter that someone is missing the boat in this category. Belleville High's Pep Club or Student Council might consider a souvenir as a possible future moneymaker or the chamber could come up with something with which people could remember their stops in our fair city.

The Detroit foursome suggested a bumper sticker or at least matches with "The City of Belleville" imprinted.

(Mrs. Belleville, you'll be reading this when your subscription is listed and your paper arrives. Hopefully, something will be done so that your next drive out to Belleville will bear a little more fruit.)

We did supply the family with the Chamber of Commerce's brochure which bore the words Belleville-Van Buren so at least they could prove to their neighbors that, "yes Virginia, there really IS a Belleville, Mich."

Couples plan August vows

Gustavson-Susterka

Mr. and Mrs. August Gustavson of 7 Sunset Court, Montville, N.J. announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Nancy L., to Barry D. Susterka.

The young couple have reserved Boonton Methodist Church in Boonton, N.J. for their Aug. 9 wedding.

The bride-elect, who resides at 817 Green St., Apt. 308, Ypsilanti, will be in her junior year at Eastern Michigan University (EMU) in the fall. A physical education major, she is employed as a lifeguard and swim instructor at both Lake in the Woods Swim Club and the EMU pool.

Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Susterka of 2154 Lakeview, Ypsilanti, is a fourth year student at EMU where, he too, is majoring in physical education. A resident of 835

Green St., Apt. 101, Ypsilanti, he works as a diving coach and lifeguard at Forestbrooke Athletic Club in Ann Arbor.

Miles-Wasilewski

The engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Judy Faye Miles, to David John Wasilewski is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Miles of 21311 Haggerty Road, Belleville.

The couple plan to be married Aug. 2 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Romulus.

A 1970 graduate of Huron High School, the bride-elect is employed at the Ben Franklin Store in Belleville.

Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wasilewski of 22550 Bell Road, New Boston, graduated from Huron High School in 1966 and currently is employed by the Ford Motor Co. in Plymouth.

People place an emphasis on clothing

By MARTA HEPLER
Special Writer

Although there are those who disagree with the saying "clothes make the man," many people will admit that there is a certain emphasis on fashion today, which wasn't there a few years ago.

"Clothes are pretty important today," said Linda Doran of 36801 Thinbark, Wayne. "They probably shouldn't be, but they are."

Because of this, fashion designers are introducing a wider variety of styles every year, and according to Jill Newport of 14364 Louisa Drive, Belleville, today's rapidly changing styles are "hard to keep up with."

"I buy clothes almost every weekend," she said. What kind of clothes do people buy? To find out, several shoppers at Westland Center were asked their opinions.

"In women's fashions, there is a trend toward more dresses and skirts," said Diane Morawa of 8417 Whitefield, Dearborn Heights. "Casual dresses though, not fancy."

And instead of disappearing from the fashion scene, blue jeans are more evident than ever, according to Lynne Nega of 26422 Doxtator, Dearborn Heights. As a saleswoman in a clothing store, she has noticed that "the pre-washed kind of jeans really are selling."

The role of men in fashion also is changing. In the past, people were designing women's fashions and passing the men by, but today almost equal importance is placed on men's fashions.

Bob Herge of 34486 Tonquish, Westland, feels men still are getting short-changed.

"There're more girl's stores than there are guy's, aren't there?" he asked.

If this is so, Lisa Eschmann of 16698 Golfview, Livonia, said it is because men don't need as wide a variety of clothes as women.

"Men don't get as big of a kick out of going in stores and buying clothes," she added.

According to Lorraine Bell of 34106 Tawas Trail, Westland, fashions are designed today with a certain figure in mind—a slender one.

Parlor organ called Eastlake

Q. "A friend referred to our parlor organ as an Eastlake organ. What is meant by this term?"—Mr. and Mrs. D.K., Louisville, Ky.

A. Charles Eastlake's "Hints on Household Taste" published in England in 1868 and in America in 1872 had a profound influence on cabinetmakers for the duration of the century. The cabinet organ or American organ became an architectural wonder when enhanced with Eastlake details. Antique buffs will pull out all the stops price-wise to obtain one of these pump organs in working condition. Value guide: parlor organ, circa 1890, $875.

enthusiasts. The 1939, No. 2, Superman comic book lists for $350. However, an overzealous buyer may even exceed this amount for a mint condition copy, of course, Superman No. 3, published the same year, catalogues for about $225.

Q. "Shellwork boxes intrigue me. When were they created?"—Mrs. T.Y. Chattanooga, Tenn.

A. A craze for handcrafted and commercially produced shellwork items persisted in the closing decades of the 19th century. Attractively shaped cardboard boxes, many in whimsical forms, lent themselves well to being covered with shells from near and far. Wall-pockets, banks and even aquariums were among the objects subjected to the splendor of shellwork. These treasures were once neglected by browsers, but the tide has turned, and they are enjoying a wave of popularity. Value guide: trinket box, $16.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

Member By Invitation ONSM National Selected Morticians

HAROLD REDISKE, HAROLD REDISKE, JR. - DIRECTORS

A young boy yearned for a new bicycle...He prayed every day and night for a new bike...After a month or so or prayer he became discouraged and finally with childish candor prayed: "Dear God, I've prayed and prayed. Why don't you do something about it? I want my bike in a week or I'll stop praying. I'm running out of patience."

Does not this incident pinpoint a principle seen sometimes in adult thinking? Is it not true that the need and benefit of prayer and our views of kinship with God needs correction at times? Should we not remember God's primary purpose is NOT the pleasing of man; but that man should please Him? Is it not true our faith at times needs straightening out; that we need His wisdom; He does not need ours? Is it not also true we know Him most, enjoy Him most when we trust Him most?

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Folks and sons of Robbe Avenue spent the past week visiting his relatives in West Virginia.

Miami honeymoon follows Hamrick-Renton ceremony

Wearing a white chiffon gown which she had designed and made, Joyce May Renton exchanged nuptial vows with Daryl Craig Hamrick. The double ring ceremony at St. Mark Lutheran Church in Ypsilanti on June 21 was conducted by The Rev. Robert D. Thies. For the double ring rite, the altar was appointed with arrangements of daisy mums, white glads, carnations and trailing ivy.

Music was played by Leo Hogan.

The 6 p.m. wedding united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Renton of 13989 S. Sheldon Road, Belleville, and the son of Pearl Hamrick of 16883 Elwell Road, Belleville, and the late Noble R. Hamrick.

Some 60 guests saw Joyce given in marriage by her father. Her gown of chiffon over bridal taffeta was styled with a sweetheart neckline edged in lace and long chiffon sleeves cuffed in matching trim. The lace motif also was used on her fingertip veil of French illusion. Cascading white sweetheart roses, carnations, daisy mums and baby's breath completed her bridal finery.

As her sister's maid of honor, Janette K. Renton of Belleville wore a mint green gown in the empire mode with green and yellow lace accenting the sweetheart neckline. A headpiece of mint veiling and colonial bouquet of white carnations, yellow daisy mums and baby's breath complimented her frock.

Mary A. Sterzinger of Belleville, a school friend and roommate, was the only bridesmaid in an identical ensemble.

Larry A. Hamrick of Belleville was his brother's best man and the bride's brother, J. Terry Renton of Belleville, served as groomsmen.

At the reception, which followed at Vigo's in Ypsilanti, the 60 guests were greeted by Mrs. Renton in a peach colored gown with white lace cuffs and collar. Her corsage was comprised of white cymbidium orchids, stephanotis and baby's breath tied with peach ribbon.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Hamrick chose a pink chiffon gown with a matching cape. She was presented with a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis tied in pink.

Since returning from a 3-week honeymoon to Miami, Fla., the newlyweds have taken up residence at 47103 Waters Edge Lane, B-207, Belleville.

A 1972 graduate of Belleville High School, Joyce also graduated from Bauder Fashion College in Miami, Fla. She now is employed by the University of Michigan's Institute for Social Research.

Her husband is a 1970 alumnus of Belleville High School who served two years with the U.S. Army, one of which was spent in Vietnam. He is self employed at Hamrick Greenhouses in Belleville.

Woodstone Inn of Belleville was the setting for the rehearsal dinner given by the bride's parents, the J.C. Rentons.

MRS. DONALD P. HARRIS

Noel Folks bride of David Harris

In a civil ceremony in Toledo, Ohio, Noel Folks became the bride of Cpl. Donald P. Harris. The couple chose the outstate, private nuptials on July 2 to coincide with his special leave to attend his younger sister, Charlene's, graduation from Belleville High School.

Noel is the youngest daughter of Sumpter Police Commissioner and Mrs. Noah Folks.

Donald, the son of Mrs. Chrystal Harris of Martinsville Road, Belleville, has left to complete his tour of duty with the U.S. Army in Germany. He is a 1972 alumnus of Belleville High School.

The bride graduated from Airport High School and attended Wayne County Community College for two years. She currently is working towards an advanced degree at Eastern Michigan University and is employed as a counselor to youth at Communities United for Action.

The couple will be feted at a reception in December when Cpl. Harris' overseas assignment has been completed.

Former Belleville girl is Centennial Queen

A former Belleville resident and student at Huron High School, Pamela McLean, has been crowned Roscommon County Centennial Queen. The 16-year old Houghton Lake junior is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross McLean, formerly of 19407 Savage Road, Belleville. The McLeans, their daughter and two sons, David and Owen, moved to Houghton Lake in the winter of 1973.

Pamela will reign over festivities in Roscommon County during the centennial year. Thus far she has appeared in the July 4th parades at Higgins Lake and in the Village of Roscommon.

On July 11, she was to have ridden on her own float in the Traverse City Cherry Festival parade which President Gerald R. Ford was to attend.

The new queen, who was a member of the Huron High School Band, chose for her talent presentation a vocal rendition of "Sound of Music."

conditions hereinafter imposed. If the decision of the Planning Commission is concurred in by the council, the approval shall take effect as of that date.

a. Wholesale and warehousing where such uses are within a totally enclosed structure.

b. Plumbing and sheet metal shops, tool and die shops and similar industries which are of a light manufacturing character and located within a totally enclosed structure.

c. Establishments for the assembly, manufacturing and fabrication of products, providing such processes are within a totally enclosed structure.

26.04 Applicable District Requirements.

a. Open or outside storage yards of construction contractors' equipment and supplies, building materials, sand, gravel, or material and equipment used in manufacturing or processing are specifically prohibited.

b. Bump shops, metal buffing, auto painting, automobile repair garages, undercoating, rustproofing and welding shops are specifically prohibited.

c. Within the B-T District the area, and placement requirements of the C-1, C-2, O-1 or M-1 district in which the use if first permitted shall apply. (See Section 19.01 Area, Height and Placement Regulations).

SECTION III. VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES.

3.00 Any person, persons, firm or corporation, or anyone acting in behalf of said person, persons, firm or corporation, who shall violate any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or who fails to comply with any of the regulatory measures or conditions adopted pursuant hereto, shall upon conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars and the costs of prosecution or, in default of the payment thereof, by imprisonment in the County Jail for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court. The imposition of any sentence shall not exempt the offender from compliance with the requirements of this Ordinance.

Uses of land, and dwellings, building, or structures, including tents, trailer coaches and mobile homes, used, erected, altered, raxed, or converted in violation of any provision of this Ordinance, are hereby declared to be nuisances per se.

SECTION IV. VALIDITY.

4.00 This Ordinance and the various sections, paragraphs, and Clauses thereof, are hereby declared to be severable. If any section, paragraph or clause is adjudged unconstitutional or invalid, the remainder of the Ordinance shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION V. EFFECTIVE DATE.

5.00 This ordinance shall become effective immediately upon publication in a newspaper of general circulation.

I, Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk for the City of Romulus, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of an Ordinance duly adopted by the Romulus City Council at its regular meeting held on the 1st day of July, 1975.

Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk
City of Romulus

ATTEST:
Terry L. Troutt, Mayor

Within forty five (45) days after the publication of any ordinance duly passed by the Council, a petition may be presented to the Council protesting against such ordinance continuing in effect. Said petition shall contain the text of such ordinance and shall be signed by not less than six (6 percent) percent of the registered electors registered at the last preceding election at which a Mayor of the City was elected. Said ordinance shall thereupon and thereby be suspended from operation and the Council shall immediately reconsider such ordinance.

Family paints flags

Americanism can be shown in varied ways and in many expected places especially in these days of preparation for the observance of the nation's Bicentennial next year.

A recent example of this is a painting project undertaken by the Bramlett family of Van Buren Township.

Jack Bramlett of 16558 Savage Road, a licensed building contractor, decided to start a long-overdo paint job on the family's 40- by 28-foot cement block barn.

A PATRIOTIC ROOF — With many area communities now observing the nation's Bicentennial with parades and planned programs, the Jack Bramlett family in Van Buren Township decided to observe the country's 200th birthday (July 4, 1976) by painting American flags on both sides of the roof of the family's 40 by 28-foot concrete block barn. Shown are two members of the Bramlett family and neighborhood children. They are (from left) Tim Norman, 9; Anthony McDermott, 10; Merle Goodall, 10; Terry Norman, 11; Jeff Bramlett, 16, one of the artists; Carol Goodall, 12; and Chris Bramlett, 9, who acted as the paint project's director. — The Enterprise-Roman photo.

Census Bureau surveys in area

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will interview a sample of households in Westland during mid-month to obtain information on employment. The bureau is part of the U.S. Department of Commerce's Social and Economic Statistics Administration.

Robert G. McWilliam, director of the bureau's Regional Office in Detroit, said interviewers will visit homes to obtain information about languages other than English spoken and if more than one language is used.

These questions will be in addition to those asked regularly in the monthly survey. This survey, which the bureau conducts each month for the U.S. Department of Labor, provides a continuous measure of employment and unemployment.

In sweeping project

City asks for cooperation

The City of Belleville recently purchased its first street sweeper and in order to make proper use of the new equipment, officials are requesting residents and business establishments cooperate in a new no parking program which went into effect last week.

The city has been divided into two districts to facilitate the street sweeping. District 1 covers residential streets, while District 2 is business areas.

The requested no parking will be from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in District 1 and from 2 to 6 a.m. in District 2. The street sweeper will be cleaning streets in both districts on Tuesdays.

Streets involved in District 1 are Potter, Wexford, North Edgemont, South Edgemont, Robbe, Clarence, Bedell, North Biggs, South Biggs, Madelon, Roland, Angola, Edison, Brain, Church, East Washash, West Washash, Henry, Davis, First and Second.

Streets involved in District 2 are Charles, Roys, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Liberty and High.

High school graduation 'opens' doors of success

Graduation from high school perhaps is today's most important swinging door. If success in life is what you seek, this is your first most successful door to pass through with a diploma. This is the key that will unlock doors to a multitude of opportunities; skills in technical and physical training; careers in the armed services; two, four or several years of professional training.

Seventy-five adults received the "key" through the Romulus adults education program this past school year.

The ceremony, largest in history, was held in the Romulus Senior High School auditorium on May 17. A pot-luck banquet started off the evening and 375 people were on hand to honor 45 of the graduates who elected to march in the cap-and-gown ceremony.

Board of Education President Carl Morris presented diplomas to each of the graduates as they came forward.

A special award was given to Mary Thomas, an adult student for the past four years. Mrs. Thomas was presented the Lorena Burton Memorial Trophy as courageous student of the year. This award is in honor of Lorena G. Burton, a former Romulus school administrator who passed away last spring and is given to the student who overcomes severe difficulties to attend adult classes. Mrs. Thomas and her husband Harold are the parents of 10 children and she attended classes four nights a week throughout the year. Even a fire at the Thomas house this fall did not interrupt her education as she returned to classes within a week's time.

Adult classes will start again in September and area residents are invited to return to school to earn their diplomas. Additional information is available at the Romulus Board of Education, 36540 Grant Road, 941-1600.

Vets correct 'errors'

Veterans have a right to request correction of what they feel are errors or injustices in their military records.

Application must be submitted to the branch in which the veteran served, but the Veterans administration (VA) can provide the necessary Department of Defense form, DD-149, "Application for Correction of Military or Naval Record."

While some errors may seem insignificant, correction of others could prove important, resulting in eligibility for VA and other benefits.

Generally, veterans are expected to file requests for correction within three years, but this deadline may be waived in interest of justice.

Applications may be filed by the veteran, survivors or legal representatives.

Licensing of schools necessary

Licensing now is underway of Michigan's privately operated driver training schools. The secretary of state's office has notified the approximately 175 school locations throughout the state that they have until Aug. 1 to complete and return their application forms and fees.

Applications for instructors' licenses were included in the mailings sent to the schools.

License fees are $25 per school and $2 per instructor.

Any private driver training school which has not already received its license application materials is urged to contact: Bureau of Automotive Regulation, Secretary of State, Lansing 48918.

PEOPLE,
I AM A LOCAL MAN ON DISABILITY
WITHOUT MUCH MONEY TO SPEND;
AND NEED A CAR FOR MY ROPE-OF-LIFE
TO BE MOVING FROM END TO END.
SO I LOOKED FROM ONE TO ANOTHER AND
AS NORMAL BECAME SOMEWHAT BORED; WITH A BIT OF IRRITATION, UNTIL I SAW OUR LOCAL DEALER OF 'FORD'.

(JACK DEMMER FORD)
37300 MICHIGAN AVE. WAYNE, MICH.

SO I LOOKED FOR A CAR WITH A FAVORITE WORD TO SAVE MONEY WE CALL 'ECONOMIC';
AND DID BUY THAT CAR, WHICH IS A FORD.
AND CARRIES THE NAME 'MAVERICK'.

AND SINCE IT IS A SMALL CAR
I DID HOPE FOR ECONOMY;
MY THOUGHTS WERE HONESTLY OUT-

EARL KEIM REALTY

Why Buy Now?

PRICES KEEP GOING UP!

Costs are rising in every phase of home building. Labor, construction materials, land... at a steady pace. The 5 percent annual cost increase experienced over the past ten years is no longer an accurate measuring stick for the housing industry. No too long ago the experts in the field of economics predicted a cost increase of $1,250 per year on a $30,000 home. Now they are talking about increases up to $5,000 in just one year! This, in itself, is sufficient reason for buying a home today. Another important consideration is that home values increase each year and thus provide you with an effective hedge against inflation.

The longer you postpone your home-buying decision, the more it will cost you. Shouldn't you buy now? Why not talk it over with one of the Helpful people from Earl Keim Realty? Let us show you why you can't do better than right now!
